

Rubrics for Comprehensive Assessment and Professional Growth

The following rubrics are to be used in identifying the level at which an indicator within a domain is performed. All of the data gathered from the varied sources should be considered when determining the performance level. The rubrics should be used to identify the best fit for the collected data rather than expecting an exact match with each item of any one level.